

Resources for Teens

If you would like more information on genres, plotting, fight scenes, believable plots, relatable characters, or publishing options, please email me. My heart is for helping teens to grow and become the writers God has called them to be. My website also has other writing resources at <https://CrystalCaudill.com/Online-Resources/>. Thanks for joining me!

Writing Hints

- Have each character name start with a different letter, and avoid names that rhyme or would be easy to confuse. You want to be as clear and nice to the reader as possible.
- Your first draft is not your final draft. Writing THE END does not mean you're done. A truly well written story takes many revisions, edits, and drafts.
- Find another writer you trust who's a little further along than you to be a critique partner. They will help you and your story grow
